3 (a) Compliance prior to facilitating the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme

(i). The Trust will:

- Retain strategic oversight of the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme across the Trust Schools.
- Collect a central register of all lead induction tutors and mentors with responsibilities for delivering the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme across the Trust Schools.
- Collect a central register of all ECTs participating in the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme across the Trust Schools and keep a record of their progress across the Trust Schools.
- Communicate which model of induction provision is appropriate for the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme across the Trust Schools, to all Headteachers across the Trust for each academic year.
- The Trust has chosen to use a DfE funded training provider for the academic year 2022 – 2023. The Lead Provider chosen by the Trust is Teach First and the delivery partner is Vantage Teaching School Hub, for the academic year 2022 – 2023.
- Ensure that each school in the Trust facilitating the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme across the Trust Schools has registered with the Lead Provider.
- Ensure that that each school in the Trust facilitating Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme has registered an Early Careers Induction Tutor, to liaise with the DfE.
- Ensure that each school in the Trust facilitating the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme has registered all Early Careers mentors, hereafter referred to as ECMs and all ECTs (before they start their induction period) with the DfE.

- Ensure that any ECT transferring from another school, who has partially completed their Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme is registered by the school facilitating the remainder of their Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme with the DfE prior to starting their appointment.
- Ensure that all ECMs have received training in instructional coaching.
- Ensure that no Trust school, once they have entered special measures recruits any new ECTs, unless an Ofsted Inspection makes a judgement that the setting is suitable for the purposes of an induction and gives permission for ECT appointments within specific departments or subject areas of the school.

- Retain operational responsibility for the implementation of the Early Careers Statutory Induction Programme.
- Liaise with the governing body to ensure that they are satisfied that there is capacity to support an ECT.

- Choose the training programme as directed by the Trust.
- Register with the lead provider and the delivery partner as directed by the Trust.
- Verify that the ECT has been awarded QTS with the Teaching Regulation Agency.
- Contact the ECT's previous appropriate body, if the ECT has completed part of their period in another institution, to obtain copies of any progress review records or assessment reports (including any interim assessments, if applicable). They should then establish how much induction time remains to be served and alert the new appropriate body to any concerns that have been raised about the ECT's progress by previous employers.
- Ensure with agreement with the appropriate body that the post is suitable for the ECT to serve induction. A suitable post is expected to:
 - Have a Headteacher in post who is able to make a recommendation about whether the ECT's performance against the Teaching Standards is satisfactory.

the remainder of their induction.

- Ensure that when the transitional period ends, that the pre-September 2021 cohort who have not completed, follow a two-year induction period. This will not entail restarting the induction process but will require them to complete what remains of the two-year induction. - Provide the ECT with a reduced timetable to allow for them to complete induction activities. A year one ECT (terms 1 - 3) will teach no more than a 90% timetable of the timetable of existing teachers on the main scale. A year two ECT (terms 2 – 6) will teach no more than a 95% timetable of the timetable of existing teachers on the main scale. This time must be specifically allocated to completing induction activities and must be in addition to the planning, preparation, and assessment time (PPA) that all teachers receive.
 - Not make unreasonable demands on the ECT.

 - Be informed by existing evidence of the ECTs teaching and should be conducted with sufficient detail to ensure that there is nothing unexpected for the ECT when it comes to the formal assessment.
 - Not require the ECT to create evidence specifically to inform a progress review.
 - Require the ECT to engage in the process and provide copies of existing evidence as agreed with the Induction Tutor.
 - Provide a written record that is retained and shared with the ECT.
 - Clearly record whether the ECT is on track to successfully complete induction.
 - Agree development targets should be set and expected objectives should be reviewed and revised in relation to the Teacher's Standards and the needs/strengths of the ECT.
- Update the Headteacher of the ECTs progress after each progress review.
- Notify the appropriate body after each progress review stating whether the ECT is making satisfactory progress and if not, outline a plan to assist the ECT in getting back on track.
- Have regular contact with the appropriate body throughout the induction, keeping them apprised of the ECT's progress and providing copies of progress reviews if requested.

 - Form the basis of the headteacher's recommendation to the appropriate body as to whether, having completed the induction period, the ECT's performance against the Teachers' Standards is satisfactory or unsatisfactory, or whether an extension should be considered. This recommendation will be recorded on the final assessment record.
- Will ensure that if an ECT leaves post after completing one term or more in the school but before the next formal assessment would take place, that the Induction Tutor or Headteacher completes an interim assessment. This should take place before the ECT leaves post. This is also required if they leave during their final term of induction.
 - Ensure that the ECT's teaching is observed (this can be by the induction tutor or another appropriate person from within the Trust). Arrangements are made for a post observation review meeting and that constructive feedback from the observation is provided in a prompt manner, with a brief written record made on each occasion.
 - Ensure the ECT is aware of how they can raise concerns about their induction programme or their personal progress, both within and outside of the school.

- Regularly meet with the ECT for structured mentor sessions to provide effective targeted feedback

- Arrange opportunities for the ECT to observe other colleagues both within and outside the school setting.
- Regularly observe the ECTs teaching and provide written feedback.
- Adopt a feedback- coaching model for mentoring meetings, with instructional coaching employed following a lesson observation, or to practise a discrete skill or technique.
- Provide, or broker, effective support – including subject-specific, phase-specific, coaching and/or mentoring.
- Liaise with the Induction tutor to communicate what effective support may need to be brokered, when appropriate.
- Act promptly and appropriately if the ECT appears to be having difficulties by liaising with the Induction tutor, when appropriate.
- Ensure confidentiality at all time and will not share assessments generated from the induction process, with anyone who is not directly involved in the induction process.

- Contact the appropriate body for guidance, if they have any questions or concerns about the quality of the school's induction arrangements and the roles and responsibilities of staff involved in the process.

(vi). The ECT will:

- Meet with their Induction Tutor at the start of the programme to discuss and agree priorities, and keep these under review.
- Agree with their Induction Tutor how best to use their reduced timetable allowance and guarantee engagement with their ECF-based induction.
- Provide evidence of their progress against the Teachers' Standards.
- Participate fully in the monitoring and development programme.
- Raise any concerns with their induction tutor as soon as practicable.
- Keep track of and participate effectively in scheduled classroom observations, progress reviews and form assessment meetings.
- Agree with the induction tutor the start and end dates of their induction part/part periods and the dates of any absences from work during any period/part period.
- Retain copies of all assessment reports.

Section 4. Unsatisfactory progress

(i). Where the induction tutor determines during a termly progress review that the ECT is not making sufficient progress against the Teachers' Standards, they should state this clearly within the progress review record and clearly outline the support plan that they have put in place to assist the ECT to get back on track.

(ii). If it becomes apparent that an ECT is not making satisfactory progress in the first formal assessment, the appropriate body should be informed and the headteacher should ensure that additional monitoring and support measures will be put in place immediately. The ECT should be made aware of where they need to improve their practice and given every opportunity to raise their performance. The headteacher and the appropriate body should be satisfied that:

- Areas in which improvement is needed have been correctly identified,
- Appropriate objectives are set to guide the ECT towards satisfactory performance against the relevant standards,
- An effective support programme is put in place to help the ECT improve their performance.

(iii). If progress continues to be unsatisfactory in subsequent progress reviews, following the first assessment point, induction tutors should continue to deliver progress reviews as stipulated in 4 (a), including reviewing and revising the ECT's objectives and support plan linked to the Teachers' Standards and sharing this with the ECT, headteacher and appropriate body.

(iv). Where concerns persist about the ECT's progress between formal assessments one and two, the induction tutor should explain to the ECT the consequences of failure to complete the induction period satisfactorily and discuss fully with the ECT:

- The identified weaknesses,
- The agreed objectives previously set in relation to the requirements for the satisfactory completion of the induction, updating these as necessary,
- Details of additional monitoring and support put in place,
- The evidence used to inform the judgement and,
- Details of the improvement plan for the next assessment period.

The progress review should reflect the unsatisfactory progress against the Teachers' Standards and be shared with the appropriate body alongside the support plan. The assessment report will reflect the current rate of progress and brief details of the issues discussed.

Section 5. Action in event of serious capability problems

(i). If it becomes necessary to instigate capability procedures before the end of the induction period, which may lead to dismissal before the end of the induction period. If this is the case for along as the ECT remains employed by the school, the Induction process must continue in parallel with the capability procedure and the appropriate body must be informed.

(ii). Dismissal on the grounds of capability before the end of the induction period does not prevent the ECT from completing induction at another institution, as all ECTs must complete a full induction period before they can be judged to have failed their induction.

Section 6. Pay and career progression

The 2-year induction has no adverse impact on ECTs' pay or career progression opportunities. ECTs are still able to progress on the pay scale both during and after induction, in line with the Trust's Pay Policy.

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.
